

Miss U.P. Rodeo Queen/Princess

Titleholder Expectations

If you are selected as the new titleholder, you will be expected to abide by the following during your reign.

1. Appearances (required)-

- a. Queen- four (4) PRCA sanctioned rodeos
- b. Princess-two (2) PRCA sanctioned rodeos

The following may be subject to change with permission and approval of the U.P. Championship Rodeo Queen Committee-

- c. Iron River 4th of July parade-on horseback
  - d. Holiday in Lights Parade-not required to be on horseback, rodeo will provide float for titleholders to ride
  - e. Iron County Fair
  - f. Clinic sponsored by rodeo queen committee.
2. Additional appearances-these are suggested, not required. Additional appearances must be approved by the U.P. Championship Rodeo Queen Coordinator at least one week prior to appearance. Every effort should be made to represent the U.P. Championship Rodeo at other events, which can include-
- a. Schools
  - b. Nursing Homes
  - c. Hospitals
  - d. Senior Centers
  - e. Parades
  - f. Horse Expos/horse fairs (i.e. Midwest Horse Fair)
3. Assist U.P. Championship Rodeo in fundraising efforts, such as annual raffle ticket sales.
4. Attend queen/princess welcome breakfast Sunday morning of rodeo weekend.
5. Make yourself available for photo shoot Sunday after breakfast.
6. Responsible for transportation to and from all appearances.
7. Attire/appearance-
- a. Crown, sash, buckle, boots and proper attire must be worn for all appearances as Miss U.P. Rodeo Queen/Princess.
  - b. Jeans must not be faded or have any holes.
  - c. Attire must be age appropriate, no cleavage or tank tops.
  - d. Hair must be neatly groomed, no visible tattoos or facial piercings.

8. Thank you notes need to be sent to all sponsors, judges, rodeo committees, stock contractors, and rodeo contact persons. U.P. Championship Rodeo will provide cards and postage.
9. Promote the U.P. Championship Rodeo and the sport of rodeo in a positive manner at all times.
10. Must demonstrate honesty, good sportsmanship, good behavior and etiquette at all appearances representing U.P. Championship Rodeo. This includes keeping cell phone in vehicle or out of view and on silent when making an appearance. No drinking, smoking, or drugs.
11. Treat all animals humanely.
12. Become responsible for Miss U.P. Rodeo and U.P. Rodeo Princess Facebook accounts. When posting to these accounts, you must remember that you are representing the U.P. Championship Rodeo and all posts should be done in a positive manner, with the focus being the U.P. Championship Rodeo, Miss U.P. Rodeo or U.P. Rodeo Princess.
13. Maintain a scrapbook for display at the rodeo the following year.
14. Responsible for the traveling crown and chaps throughout reign. If there is any damage to the crown or chaps, any repairs or replacement is the responsibility of the reigning queen.
15. Assume full financial responsibility for any appearances made as Miss U.P. Rodeo/Princess.
16. Scholarship monies will be paid after proof of one semester of college has been completed. Transcript must be sent to U.P. Championship Rodeo Queen Coordinator.

Failure to abide and carry out the expectations, can and will result in the Miss U.P. Rodeo Queen/Princess Committee and/or the U.P. Championship Rodeo Board revoking the title and all items awarded with the title and competition.